Dear Mr. Doncillo,

The Sorsogon Province is known for its diverse eco-tourism destinations and for its rich culture and heritage. The Province also offers a wide array of both tangible and intangible cultural properties that showcase what Sorsogon Province has to offer. This includes arts and heritage organizations, cultural occupations and industries, cultural and natural heritage – among others. The stories, traditions and unique quality of life- our intangible assets, shape our identity and sense of place as Sorsogonans.

In connection to this, I would like to invite your organization to attend the 1-day Orientation Meeting to be facilitated by the National Commission for Culture and the Arts on January 17, 2020 at Function Hall, Gabaldon Building, Sorsogon East Central School. The registration will start at 8:00 in the morning.

We reserved 40 slots for the participants coming from DepEd Sorsogon Province. You may endorse 40 names to us or they may confirm their participation thru the contact details below. This will be on a first come first serve basis.

Through Cultural Mapping, the Province will be able to formulate an interactive map of cultural and heritage sites, establish a Provincial Cultural Steering Committee and create cultural policies that would further help in the preservation and protection of our cultural properties.

For clarifications and other concerns, kindly coordinate with Mr. Jerome D. Dio, Museum Conservator at email address sorsogonjerome@gmail.com or at (+63) 0912-236-6422.

Thank you and I hope this merits your most positive response.

Very truly yours.
