FIRST DIVISION PAINTING COMPETITION 2022
“SORSOGON: Sining at Kasaysayan”
In celebration of the 2022 National Arts Month

CONTEST MECHANICS, TERMS, AND CONDITIONS

Section 1: QUALIFICATIONS AND REQUIREMENTS

- A. The competition is open to all interested Sorsoganon visual artists and shall be composed of three (3) categories:
- Student Category – only enrolled high school students (Junior High School and Senior High School) of Deped Sorsogon are qualified to join in this category.
- Deped Personnel Category – all current employees (Teaching and Non-Teaching) of SDO Sorsogon who have artistic skills are encouraged to join the competition and unleash their talent in visual arts.
- Open Category – This category is for all interested visual artists across the province of Sorsogon with the age of 18 years old and above.
- B. All participants shall fill-out the registration form and sign the agreement in the contest mechanics which will be available at the Schools Division Office Front Desk or the participants may directly message JM L. Musni on his messenger account. For Students and Deped Personnel Categories, the principal or section head shall sign the certification indicated below the registration form proving that the participant is a bona fide or current student or employee of the school or the SDO Sorsogon.
- C. Each participant shall be allowed to join only one category.
- D. The registration form shall be submitted by the participant during the orientation which date, time, and venue are indicated in Section 4- Timeline of Activities.

Section 2: THE CONTEST PIECE

- a. The composition of the artwork must be relevant and cohesive to the competition theme, “SORSOGON: SINING AT KASAYSAYAN.” The piece should only revolve around the arts, history, and cultural heritage of Sorsogon. It's up to the participants of all categories how they will interpret and execute the contest theme on their entries as long as it adheres to it.

- b. This competition shall be following and inspired by the regional and national level art competitions format like the Sorsogon Capitol's, GSIS', and Metrobank's. Therefore, the entry must NOT be poster making-type. Caricature/ cartoon/anime-type characters are strictly prohibited. Unlike the poster-making type artwork, the entries must have minimal but symbolic/representational elements.
- c. The artwork must be representational in form. Abstraction is not allowed.
- d. The competition strictly adheres to copyright and intellectual property rights. Therefore, the entry must be original and not copied from existing and patented works. The organizers have ways to identify which works are original and not with the help of the modern technology. If other contestants have complains to other's works, they shall report directly to the organizing team for verification and immediate action.
- e. ALL entries (both preliminary and final round) shall not indicate the artist's identity/ signature/ watermark. The artists are also not allowed to post their entries on social media, neither post nor stories until the competition is over. This is to make sure that there will be no bias in the selection and the artworks will be judged according to its quality and not on artist's brand or popularity. Only the organizers (who are not part of the selection committee) shall know the identity of the artist and his/her work.
- f. For the lucky finalists, the composition of their entry during the preliminary or qualifying round shall be the same on the final round. Addition and reduction of elements is strictly prohibited. However, the contestant is allowed to change or enhance the color and execution or style of his piece during the final round. Moreover, the contestant shall submit the preliminary entry along with/ his final entry during the submission of final entries.
- g. All entries of the finalists shall be owned by the SDO Sorsogon and shall be hung and displayed on the walls inside the SDO building. The artist shall sign a certificate of authenticity and deed of donation to be provided by the SDO Sorsogon to ensure that the artworks are protected from any form of theft. The artworks must be solely owned by the Deped Sorsogon and not by any other personalities nor agencies.
- h. The finalist must submit the title and brief description of his/her work along with the final entry.

*Element – refers to the object or character used in the composition.

Section 3: MEDIUM AND ORIENTATION

● For the Preliminary/ Selection Round

- The participant is only allowed to use wet medium like water color, gouache, or acrylic paints with the exception of oil paint. The preliminary entry must be done on a ¼ illustration board (either typical type of cold-pressed) in LANDSCAPE

Section 5: DISQUALIFICATION

- Failure to comply with the contest mechanics specifically Sections 1-3 and failure to comply on the stated schedules on Section 4 shall be grounds for disqualification.

Section 6: SELECTION

A. Preliminary/ Selection Round

- Out of all participants who registered and submitted their preliminary entries, only 10 from each category will advance to the final round.

All entries must be screened thoroughly. Thus, the rubric below will be used in rating each artwork.

1. Relevance and Cohesiveness of the concept – (5pts.)

- This measure the relevance of the composition to the theme and the cohesiveness of the elements.

2. Creativity – (5pts.)

- This criterion measures how the composition was made or how the elements were put together.

3. Execution – (5pts.)

- The style, technique used in the rendering is the one being measured in the execution. This includes the color harmony, and neatness of the work.

4. Impact– (5pts.)

- This measures the message of the artwork and its overall impact to the viewer.

TOTAL - 20pts.

B. Final Round

- The judging shall be subjective in this round. Since the Top 10 finalists in each entry are well-screened, the final round shall follow a different format in judging like the formats used in prestigious regional and national art competitions. Out of 10 finalists in each category, the judges shall pick and deliberate their top 5. Then
