Dear Sir:

We are happy and thankful that after two long years of distance learning modality, this school year has resume the face-to-face classes amid the challenges of the COVID 19 pandemic, we know that gradual transition scheme of the Department of Education adheres to strict compliance to public health protocols to ensure safety among students, teachers and the community.

The Russel Entertainment Production has its primary objectives to help develop the social well-being of kids and teens exposing them to a gathering where they showcase their talents and their ability to ramp where they develop self-confidence and social attributes to improve their personality. Since then, many good-looking pupils & students became interested in having their share of the spotlight and to help in the Department's goals to address concern on mental and psych-social dilemma of the students.

We would like to asked permission from your good office to invite your division to the "2022 Regional Pormang Campus (A Back To School Fashion Show) Season 18" featuring their school uniform, fads and fashion in the new normal, It also aims to provide an avenue for the students for social exposure to develop their talent and they shall not only bring honor & recognition to their school but they also give inspiration to the young people to stripe for the best and reach their goals in life. This activity is proposed to be conducted
