Dear Sir:

We are happy and thankful that after two long years of distance learning modality, this school year has resume the face-to-face classes amid the challenges of the COVID 19 pandemic, we know that gradual transition scheme of the Department of Education adheres to strict compliance to public health protocols to ensure safety among students, teachers and the community.

The Russel Entertainment Production has its primary objectives to help develop the social well-being of kids and teens exposing them to a gathering where they showcase their talents and their ability to ramp where they develop self-confidence and social attributes to improve their personality. Since then, many good-looking pupils & students became interested in having their share of the spotlight and to help in the Department's goals to address concern on mental and psych-social dilemma of the students.

We would like to asked permission from your good office to conduct the "2022 Regional Pormang Campus (A Back To School Fashion Show) Season 18" featuring their school uniform, fads and fashion in the new normal, It also aims to provide an avenue for the students for social exposure to develop their talent and they shall not only bring honor & recognition to their school but they also give inspiration to the young people to stripe for the best and reach their goals in life. This activity is proposed to be conducted on:

- February 19 @ SM City Sorsogon

The organizer has the responsibility to adapt the necessary IATF protocols, social distancing & wearing of facemask. The participants are open to those enroll this school year & to observe health protocols. The venue will be secured and will be provided with sanitizing supplies for the participants and audience. A unique learning experience for young and promising pupil & student, your presence therefore, will be great significant in shaping their future. It is our strong belief that such an activity will help in the discovery and development of the potential of the young as well as the enhancement of their character.

We are henceforth requesting for your great support in this endeavor by way of your Division Official Endorsement of the said event especially to Schools Principal & among the schools head to use /mooe for registration of the participants. It is our strong belief that such an activity will help in the discovery and development of the potentials of the young as well as the enhancement of their character after this COVID 19 pandemic.

Eagerly awaiting for your positive response
